DR. COOK LEAVES COPENHAGEN MIDST CHEERS OF SPECTATORS

Denmark Believes in Explorer Absolutely, Says Admiral Dekichelieu.

COOK IS WILLING TO SHOW RECORDS

WILL LET THE AMERICAN GEODETIC SURVEY COMPARE THEM WITH PEARY'S BUT DOES NOT SEE WHY HE SHOULD ASK FOR A COMPARISON FIRST—PEARY STILL REPORTED AT BATTLE HARBOR.

By Associated Press. Copenhagen, Sept. 10.—Dr. Cook left Copenhagen this afternoon for Christiansand, where he will sail tomorrow at noon for the United States. Formal farewells were exchanged between him and the Geographical Society and University of Copenhagen. As the ship sailed he stood on the high bridge of the vessel raising his hat to the cheers of spectators.

Before he sailed a ceremony occurred on the ship, Admiral Dekichelieu thanking Cook for sailing under the Danish flag. "Green-eyed envy and jealousy," the admiral said, "are doing their envenomed work, but we believe in you absolutely." Cook replied fittingly, saying farewell to Denmark.

Cook said to the Associated Press. "I am perfectly willing to put my records before the American coast and geodetic survey to be compared with Peary's, but don't see why I should ask for a comparison first." He said he is anxious to get home to his wife and children and complete his work.

PEARY IS REPORTED AT BATTLE HARBOR

Sydney, N. S., Sept. 10.—The Roosevelt, with Peary on board, is expected here Sunday morning. It is reported here that the ship is still at Battle Harbor, Labrador, believed to be coaling there preparing for the voyage home. She may remain there another day.

Peary will remain here about three days where a reception is planned for him. Mrs. Peary and children and Herbert Bridgman, secretary of the Peary Arctic Club, are here to meet the explorer.

PEARY WILL ARRIVE AHEAD OF DR. COOK

New York, Sept. 10.—It is now believed that Commander Robert E. Peary will reach New York about one week in advance of Dr. Frederick A. Cook, who is to sail today from Copenhagen on the steamship Oscar II. Therefore the Peary Arctic Club's

He said he carried the money to McCann at the police station the first of each month, and when persons did not pay they were ejected from establishments.

He told about a woman being arrested charged with pandering, a friend wanted acquitted. He went to see McCann who said he could "work it" for three hundred dollars, and finally compromised on two hundred and fifty, and the woman was acquitted.

HARRIMAN'S DEATH CAUSED BY A CANCER

Not Believed That He Was Operated Upon After His Return Home.

WHO WILL REPLACE HIM PROBLEMATIC

IT IS KNOWN, HOWEVER, THAT HIS GREAT RAILROAD ORGANIZATION WILL NOT BE DISTURBED—KUHN-LOEB BANK TO CONTINUE AS FINANCIAL AGENT—FUNERAL SERVICES SUNDAY AFTERNOON AT ARDEN.

By Associated Press. New York, Sept. 10.—Two beliefs regarding the death of E. H. Harriman that are certain today are: First, he died of cancer, and second, his great railroad organization will not be disturbed. The general belief is no operation was performed after his return from Europe, but it is not known whether it was on account of his weakened condition or refusal to submit to the knife. The exact time of his death remains a mystery. Dr. Lyle has issued a statement saying that the end came at 1:30.

The Kuhn-Loeb National City bank will continue to act as the chief financial agent, but who will assume the head of his affairs is a matter of speculation. It is understood that Jacob H. Schiff and Judge R. S. Lovett will divide between them the financing of the roads and running the complex organization built by Harriman. Tributes to Harriman were expressed by notable men the world over today. Harriman's offices here will remain closed until Monday.

The funeral arrangements for Harriman were completed today. The family service will be at the Arden House Sunday afternoon and the burial service at St. John's. The services will be conducted by Rev. (Continued on Page Two.)

Rev. G. Monroe Royce Had His Acquaintance For Past 30 Years.

SAW HIM WHEN HE WAS IN ENGLAND

AT THAT TIME THE DECEASED MILLIONAIRE TOLD MR. ROYCE HE DID NOT CONSIDER HIS ILLNESS AT ALL SERIOUS—DID NOT START LIFE AS OFFICE BOY, BUT AS A BANK CLERK.

While every person in Pensacola, with few exceptions, had heard of Edward H. Harriman, the millionaire railroad magnate, Rev. G. Monroe Royce, rector of Christ church, is probably the only resident who held an intimate acquaintance with the millionaire, last seeing him in England last summer, and at that time Mr. Harriman told Mr. Royce he did not consider his illness serious.

Speaking of Mr. Harriman and his family to a Journal representative yesterday Mr. Royce said: "I have known the late Mr. E. H. Harriman for thirty years. He was not born in humble circumstances nor was he ever an errand boy, as your New York letter reports. He was born in the rectory house of St. George's Episcopal church, Hempstead, Long Island, where his father was rector for a number of years. His mother was a lady of wealth and high social position, and his father was a gentleman of some considerable property in his own right. Mr. Harriman was prepared for college, but chose to enter the business world without a college training.

"His first post was that of a bank clerk, and he soon established the banking house of Harriman Brothers, which his brother still directs. Early in his career he bought a large tract of land at Arden, Orange county, New York, which had been owned by the Colt Revolver Manufacturing Company. Almost the first thing he did after acquiring this land, ten thousand acres in extent, was to erect an Episcopal church in memory of his father.

"The second sermon I ever preached was in this beautiful little church. I cannot speak with certainty as to the late Harriman's age, but I am confident he was not more than fifty-five years old at the time of his death. He was a most devoted husband and father.

"I met him when he was in England last summer, and he told me he did not consider his illness at all serious."

By Associated Press. Glasgow, Sept. 10.—Lord Roseberry in a "straight talk" today to the business men of the north, vehemently denounced the budget and its authors. He said the government is dallying with socialism, which is the end of all things. His address was discussed in the house of commons and the prevailing opinion seems that the fate of the finance bill is sealed and the house of lords would reject it.
